In Focus

"Kandi & The Gang" (Bravo — series premiere, March 6)

At Kandi Burruss-Tucker's OLG restaurant in Atlanta, the dishes never disappoint and neither does the drama. This new reality series follows Kandi ("The Real Housewives of Atlanta"), her husband Todd and the "Old Lady Gang" behind the scenes at their famed hot spot, where they dish up delicious soul food that has customers lining up, served by the colorful cast of characters who work there.

Camryn Manheim helps maintain 'Law & Order' in original series' revival

When Camryn Manheim says that joining the revival of "Law & Order" brings her "full circle," she really means it.

The Emmy winner for "The Practice" had several of her earliest television roles – three different ones – as a guest star on executive producer Dick Wolf's long-running, franchise-spawning drama series. She returns to it as a regular for what NBC is calling its 21st season starting Thursday, Feb. 24, reinforcing Wolf's "Chicago"-show and "FBI" tradition by opening an all-"Law & Order" night that also includes the "Special Victims Unit" and "Organized Crime" spinoffs.

Merging returning cast members and new additions, "Law & Order" now casts Manheim as Lt. Kate Dixon, the boss of the New York police detectives played by returnee Anthony Anderson (fresh off "black-ish") and "Burn Notice" alum Jeffrey Donovan. Sam Waterston reprises his role as District Attorney Jack McCoy, and Hugh Dancy ("Hannibal") and Odelya Halevi ("Good Trouble") also are new to the series as prosecutors.

"I'd just gotten my master's degree from New York University," the friendly Manheim recalls, "and like every New York actor, it was my dream to get a guest shot on 'Law & Order.' I did a lot of Off-Broadway theater, and everyone would write in their program bio who they wanted to thank ... and at the end, they would write how many times they'd appeared on 'Law & Order.' For several years, I couldn't say that, and it was probably one of my proudest moments when I could add, '"Law & Order": One episode.' And then, 'Two episodes.' And then, 'Three episodes.'

Now, Manheim says, "I'm not going to lie, I'm still in a little bit of shock. I'm moving from Los Angeles to New York, and I would not have done it for any other show. "Law & Order" has such a special place in my heart, and it's not just me, but all of New York. Actors dream to be on it, crew members' lives were made by it, and the city was vitalized by it. It's very profound for me."

Manheim's Dixon effectively is the successor to Lt. Anita Van Buren, played through most of the original show's run by S. Epatha Merkerson (now on NBC's and producer Wolf's "Chicago Med").

"I think it takes a certain kind of woman to hold down this fort and make sure that everything works in tandem," Manheim notes, reasoning that Dixon "has to keep the D.A.'s office happy, she has to keep the police chief happy, and she has to get her detectives to do the work: And I think that with how bossy I am in general, they sensed that I could bring her to life."

TV shows about TV

Anyone old enough to remember will tell you TV has changed a lot since the 1970s.

There was no streaming, cable was still at least a decade away from emerging as a viable force and the "Big Three" networks of ABC, CBS and NBC had a stranglehold on viewership. Fox at that point was still in the idea stage.

It was during these times that a show like "The Mary Tyler Moore Show" flourished. Airing as part of CBS' Saturday blockbuster lineup of socially relevant comedies, it put local TV news in the spotlight through the misadventurers of the staff of Minneapolis' WJM-TV and its bumbling anchorman Ted Baxter (Ted Knight), hard-nosed executive producer Lou Grant (Ed Asner), acerbic head writer Murray Slaughter (Gavin McLeod) and assistant producer Mary Richards (Moore), who kept them all on the same page.

True, this was merely the backdrop for the real story, which was the challenges faced by the single working woman in a man's world. But there was plenty of comedy to be mined from the Herculean task of putting a live newscast on the air every night.

Viewers can watch "The Mary Tyler Moore Show" weekdays on Decades and streaming on Hulu and Pluto.

"Movie: Homestay"

From Japan comes this fantasy drama about Shiro (Kento Nagao), who is informed that he has died and will be given another chance at life in the body of a teen who has recently committed suicide. He's then given 100 days to solve the mystery behind his death, otherwise his life will come to a permanent end. (ORIGINAL)

"Movie: Beans"

Mohawk documentarian Tracey Deer ("Mohawk Girls") made her feature directorial debut with this this 2020 Canadian drama that chronicles the 78-day standoff between two Mohawk communities and government forces in Ouebec in 1990. Kiawentiio, Violah Beauvais, Rainbow Dickerson, Joel Montgrand and Paulina Alexis head the largely indigenous Canadian cast.

"Murderville"

This six-episode procedural crime comedy offers up a unique premise: Detective Terry Seattle (Will Arnett) is joined by a celebrity guest star each episode to solve a murder. The catch is the guest isn't given a script and the pair have no idea what is about to happen but they'll have to improvise their way through the case in order to catch the killer. (ORIGINAL)

"Free Guy" (Feb. 23)

Shawn Levy's pandemic-delayed, sweetly funny 2021 action comedy scored a substantial success when it eventually hit theaters, charming many critics as well. Ryan Reynolds stars in the title role of Guy, a mild-mannered bank teller who discovers quite belatedly that he's actually a non-player character (NPC) in a massive online video game. Jodie Comer, Utkarsh Ambudkar (TV's "Ghosts") and Taika Waititi co-star.

celebrity quotes

'I grew up with 'The Fresh Prince of Bel-Air.' It was the No. 1 show to watch in my house; we had the six seasons on boxed DVD sets, and they would just be on 'repeat.' " - Jabari Banks of "Bel-Air" on Peacock

"Morgan and I did this avant-garde short film about a woman who's stuck in a Red Lobster commercial (laughs). It's called 'Great Choice' and it's kind of obscure but has a bit of a cult following. So Morgan and I had worked together under incredibly unusual circumstances and this felt like a real walk in the park." Carrie Coon on working with Morgan Spector, her TV husband in HBO's "The Gilded Age"

"Tonally as a show I find it to be tricky. I think if we can get it, though, and we hit it right, it's hopefully very rewarding because my favorite kind of shows are the ones that make you laugh until you cry." -Sofia Black-D'Elia of "Single Drunk Female" on Freeform on balancing humor with very serious subject matter

SUDOKU

Fun By The Numbers

Like puzzles? Then you'll love sudoku. This mind-bending puzzle will have you hooked from the moment you square off, so sharpen your pencil and put vour sudoku savvy to the test!

Here's How It Works:

Sudoku puzzles are formatted as a 9x9 grid, broken down into nine 3x3 boxes. To solve a sudoku, the numbers 1 through 9 must fill each row, column and box. Each number can appear only once in each row, column and box. You can figure out the order in which the numbers will appear by using the numeric clues already provided in the boxes. The more numbers you name, the easier it gets to solve the puzzle!

Comfort foods are the word on Food Network

It's late February and if you're like a lot of Americans, you've been dieting since the calendar turned to 2022.

So after nearly two months of keeping yourself on the straight and narrow, you're entitled to a cheat day. And that comes Saturday, Feb. 26, on Food Network, when the cablenet offers up a morning full of programming devoted to comfort foods.

It begins bright and early with "Barefoot Contessa: Back to Basics," in which Ina Garten shows how to prepare an easy dinner consisting of rigatoni with sausage and fennel, roast chicken cobb salad, risotto and an iced tea. Not a bad way to start.

She follows that up on "Barefoot Contessa" by revisiting flavors from her past and updating them, skewing up a split pea soup with crispy kielbasa, a lamb stew with spring vegetables and fresh raspberry mini corn muffins. Hungry yet?

Also that morning on "The Kitchen," a celebration of comfort foods is in progress as Katie Lee prepares her luscious lobster pot pie and Jeff Mauro makes his melting sweet potatoes. Also on the menu is a barbecue braised brisket with sweet potato and carrot mash. Yum.

Speaking of celebrating, Ree Drummond is doing a little of her own in the first of back-to-back episodes of "The Pioneer Woman." In the first, she pays tribute to the foods from her grandma's house by making retro Salisbury steak in gravy, skillet scalloped potatoes and green beans, plus a dessert of apple crisp. Then in the second show, she recruits help from the ranch to prepare a Tuscan chicken soup, a casserole with cheesy greens, fried crispy potato balls and an easy Neapolitan cake. Who can resist?

In late morning, the crew of "The Kitchen" is back, this time adapting their childhood favorites for the adult palate. This includes a mortadella and fig pizza bagel and a Chicago-style deep dish pizza bagel from Jeff Mauro, Alex Guarnaschelli putting her own spin on pigs in a blanket by adding pretzels and mustard sauce to the equation, and Geoffrey Zakarian topping things off with a peanut butter and jelly creme brulee. Creativity gone to the next level.

Finally at noon, Mary Berg takes viewers to school on "Mary Makes It Easy," teaching a crash course in French cuisine and taking the mystery out of classic techniques. She then sets about making a croque madame (a sandwich with ham, gruyere cheese and eggs) with caramelized onions, steak frites, a peanut butter and jelly mille-feuille (a pastry similar to a Napoleon) and an omelet souffle. Ooh la la!

BEST GENE HACKMAN MOVIES

"Bonnie & Clyde" (1967) Hackman made a big mark, and was Oscar-nominated, as the older brother and crime-spree colleague of gangster Clyde Barrow (Warren Beatty, who also produced the film).

"The French Connection" (1971) Cementing his progression from supporting player to leading man with his first Oscar win, Hackman plays New York cop "Popeye" Doyle, determined to bring down a French drug kingpin's (Fernando Rey) operation.

"The Conversation" (1974) Francis Ford Coppola's intense drama casts Hackman as a surveillance expert who may have heard too much.

"Under Fire" (1983) Hackman, Nick Nolte and Joanna "Mississippi Burning" (1988) The true story of several Cassidy all are excellent as journalists trying to do their jobs and stay alive in war-torn Nicaragua.

"Hoosiers" (1986) Hackman is outstanding as an Indiana high school basketball coach who faces his share of hurdles in trying to build a winning team. The drama leads a Hackman triple feature that Turner Classic Movies presents Friday, Feb.

"No Way Out" (1987) A superb Hackman demonstrates strength and flaws as the U.S. Secretary of Defense, who tries to cover up a fatal encounter ... though his newest hire (Kevin Costner) also has ties to the victim.

civil-rights workers murdered in the mid-1960s teams Hackman and Willem Dafoe as FBI agents trying to overcome their differences in working the case.

"Unforgiven" (1992) The Oscars finally recognized Clint Eastwood for his Western saga of an ex-gunman opposing a corrupt lawman (Hackman, earning his second Academy Award).

Royal Tenenbaums" "The (2001) Wes Anderson's comedy-drama finds Hackman playing the patriarch of a family whose name may as well be "Dysfunction."
