'Welcome to Flatch' introduces a new Fox comedy's setting

In Focus

"Atlanta" (FX — season premiere, March 24)

Nearly four years after the Season 2 finale, this Emmy-winning comedy series finally returns for its third season, which originally was planned to premiere in 2019. Set and filmed almost entirely in Europe, these new episodes follow Earn (series creator and star Donald Glover) and Paper Boi (Brian Tyree Henry), along with Darius and Van (LaKeith Stanfield, Zazie Beetz), on a European tour that is going better than they might have to navigate some new surroundings and process their unexpected success.

"Bridgerton: Season 2" (Netflix — season premiere, March 25)

The sophomore round of this original period drama from Shondaland and creator Chris Van Dusen continues the adventures of Daphne Bridgerton (Phoebe Dynevor), the eldest daughter of the powerful Bridgerton family, as she makes her debut onto Regency London's competitive marriage market. Golda Rosheuvel, Jonathan Bailey, Luke Newton, Claudia Jessie and Nicola

If you're looking for a big taste of small-town life, "Welcome to Flatch"

Premiering Thursday, March 17, the Fox sitcom from veteran producers Jenny Bicks ("Sex and the City") and Paul Feig ("Freaks and Geeks") is based on the British series "This Country," taking a documentary approach as – appropriately – a documentary crew showcases the residents of the Midwestern town of Flatch. It's a quirky group, but still with a particular charm.

Cousins Kelly and "Shrub" (played by single-named newcomer Holmes and Sam Straley) provide the crew's entry point to Flatch, whose citizens also include: the local minister (Seann William Scott) and his newspaper-editor ex-girlfriend (Aya Cash, formerly of "You're the Worst"); and the historical-society chief (Taylor Ortega). Justin Linville and Krystal Smith also play "Flatchians," as Bicks refers to them.

"I think what it allows us to do," Bicks says, "and what it did in the original, is to get inside the characters' heads. It gets to be much more on the fly, so everything feels more immediate. When you have actors – as we do – who are great on the fly, you can catch things superquickly. The comedy flows much more clearly, and that was really exciting for me."

For Feig, "Flatch" is a throwback to his own upbringing in a Detroit suburb. "I just knew I had to get out of there," he reflects, "not because I didn't like it, but because I wanted to do what I'm doing now and try to represent the Midwest. That's what I did with 'Freaks and Geeks,' and what I have been trying to do with everything that I do about underdogs. I really like to try to show the places and the people that don't normally get shown in movies and TV. That's why this show is so exciting to me."

Those who want a big dose of "Flatch" early are in luck: The same day the show makes its linear debut on Fox, the first seven episodes will be released on the network's digital platforms (Fox Now, On Demand, etc.). Cast member Cash believes the series' pace makes it digestible enough to accommodate such binge viewing of it.

"One thing that may not seem obvious about the documentary form," she reasons, "is simply how quickly it goes. I feel like there's a real pitch to be made about how you can still come up with really quality content in a really fast amount of time. It was fun to be on something where you (were finished in time so you) could have dinner some nights. I mean, I was alone in my hotel room, because it was (the time of) COVID. But it was dinner time."

Liza Lapira
7 p.m. on CW/WCCT
27th Annual Critics' Choice
Awards

From the Fairmont Century Plaza Hotel in Los Angeles, Taye Diggs and Nicole Byer host this annual awards show honoring the best in primetime television during 2021. Among the field of nominees, HBO leads with 20 nominations, closely trailed by Netflix with 18. As for individual series, two HBO dramas, "Succession" and "Mare of Easttown," scored 8 and 5 nods, respectively; "Evil," a Paramount Plus streaming series, also earned five nominations.

8 p.m. on CBS/WFSB CBS/WBZ The Equalizer

In the new episode "Somewhere Over the Hudson," Robyn (Queen Latifah) helps a desperate mob accountant recover a lost ledger. It's a vital piece of evidence he has to turn over to the FBI in exchange for safe entry into the Witness Protection Program. Meanwhile, Mel (Liza Lapira) tries to figure out a way to tell her best friend — who selflessly provided emotional support to Mel in the wake of Harry's (Adam Goldberg) "death" — that his demise was a fabrication all along.

8 p.m. on HALL When Calls the Heart

Hope Valley elects a new mayor, while Lucas and Elizabeth (Chris McNally, Erin Krakow) try to find special "little moments" to cherish in their relationship in the new episode "Out Like a Lamb." Elizabeth also offers to help Nathan (Kevin McGarry) with his traumatized horse, Newton, after the hit-andrun incident, but it's Mei (Amanda Wong) who is able to connect with the animal. Pascale Hutton, Kavan Smith and Andrea Brooks also star.

9 p.m. on CBS/WFSB CBS/WBZ NCIS: Los Angeles

In the new episode "All the Little Things," after a newborn child is found abandoned on a Navy ship, Kensi and Deeks (Daniela Ruah, Eric Christian Olsen) launch a desperate search to find her mother somewhere on board the vessel before the infant dies of medical complications. Elsewhere, operational psychologist Nate Getz (recurring guest star Peter Cambor) meets with Admiral Kilbride (Gerald McRaney) and learns about the CIA project from the 1970s and '80s involving children. Bar Paly, Jeff Kober and Olesya Rulin also guest star.

Streaming offers a feast of Italian food knowledge

As winter drags on, getting away to a gastronomic paradise like Italy has a lot of appeal. And for those who want to and can't, a number of upcoming and current offerings can show what it's all about.

Few know the territory as well as Giada De Laurentiis. As host of her discovery+ series "Giada in Italy," the Rome-born chef and author brings her family on the vacation of a lifetime in Florence, where she prepares authentic recipes in an outdoor kitchen overlooking the city. It also serves as a base from which to embark on culinary adventures in places such as Sorrento, Milan, Positano and the island of Capri.

In "Bobby and Giada in Italy," also streaming on discovery+, De Laurentiis serves as a local guide for fellow chef and Food Network personality Bobby Flay for foodie adventures in the "Bel Paese." The show follows the pair as they spend a month in Rome and Tuscany, getting inspired by the history and traditions of Italian cuisine and enjoying la dolce vita. If this doesn't make you want to book a flight across the Atlantic, nothing will.

But those are merely appetizers for the volume of Italian food knowledge that can be had on streaming. So consider the following the main course, dessert and after-dinner aperitif.

"Gino's Italian Escape" (Tubi): Italian chef and TV personality Gino D'Acampo ("Gordon, Gino & Fred's Road Trip") is your host for this culinary odyssey through his home country, in which he discovers the secrets of Italian cuisine in places ranging from coastal villages to major cities like Rome and Naples.

"A Taste of Italy" (Acorn TV, Spectrum): British chef Nisha Katona takes viewers to locations throughout the country to discover the culinary gems hidden there. Among the locales she visits are Orvieto, the Umbrian village where she tries her hand at drunk chicken; Livorno, the Tuscan port town where she makes fish stew with white wine and fennel; and Catania, where she samples tuna sausage and swordfish parmigiana.

"Finding Little Italy" (Pluto): Similarly, this British series eschews the big cities like Rome and Venice for what it calls "the real Italy," the little towns and villages that have a long history of culinary mastery. So climb aboard host Luke Darracott's Vespa for a trek to places like Liguria, Toscana, Lazio, Umbria and Emilia.

Terry Crews 7:45 p.m. on ESPN NBA Basketball

Playoff implications are all over tonight's NBA doubleheader, which tips off in the City of Brotherly Love, where James Harden and the Philadelphia 76ers hope to inch closer to the top of the East standings with a win over Nikola Jokic and the Denver Nuggets. Then in the nightcap, Giannis Antetokounmpo and the Milwaukee Bucks go on the road to face Donovan Mitchell and the Northwest-leading Utah Jazz.

8 p.m. on NBC/WVIT America's Got Talent: Extreme

If the singers, comics, ventriloquists and other more sedate acts of the original "America's Got Talent" have left some viewers a little jaded by traditional variety performances, this four-week offshoot series probably has kept them entertained with its roster of acts including a parkour aficionado who leaps over oncoming vehicles, a professional human cannonball and a trio of "Jackass" fans who set a colleague on fire and bounce on a trampoline covered in mousetraps. Tonight's finale reveals who claims the $500,000 grand prize.

8 p.m. on FOX/WTIC 9-1-1: Lone Star

Owen, Tommy (Rob Lowe, Gina Torres) and the team of the 126 go speeding to the rescue when an incident of carbon monoxide poisoning takes place at a medievalthemed eatery in the new episode "Parental Guidance." Meanwhile, Paul (Brian Michael Smith) has not mentally recovered from his surgery. Elsewhere, Mateo's (Julian O Works) old fire captain offers him a promotion, but Mateo quickly discovers his former mentor is not the man who once knew.

8 p.m. on CW/WCCT All American

In the new episode "Liberation,"
Spencer (Daniel Ezra) finally gets a handle on his brutal football schedule, but realizes it will quickly crush him unless he manages to find him unless he manages to find some kind of balance. Meanwhile, as Billy (Taye Diggs) settles into his new role, he finds inspiration from an unlikely source to pursue the job permanently. Elsewhere, Olivia and Jordan (Samantha Logan, Michael Evans Behling) search for her missing sponsor, and JJ (Hunter Clowdus) tries to help Asher (Cody Christian) get a job with the team.

Dwayne Johnson

8 p.m. on NBC/WVIT Young Rock

NBC has released scant information about the sophomore season of this sitcom, which draws freely from actual experiences at different stages of Dwayne "The Rock" Johnson's life. Given that Season 1 ended on something of a cliffhanger that suggested Johnson wins his (so far fictional) U.S. presidential bid in 2032, it seems likely that storyline will resume in Season 2. Other potential stories may involve Johnson's time in the Canadian Football League and some of his teenage romances. All the principal actors from Season 1 are expected back.

8:30 p.m. on NBC/WVIT Mr. Mayor

This savvy political comedy from the Emmy-winning "30 Rock" creative team of Tina Fey and Robert Carlock got off to a bumpy start in Season 1, which managed to get only nine episodes on the air due to two production shutdowns forced by the CO-VID-19 pandemic. Critics mostly liked what they saw of the show, which charts the quixotic administration of Los Angeles Mayor Neil Bremer (Ted Danson). Holly Hunter does inspired supporting work as Bremer's eccentric vice-mayor, and fans hope this show finally gets to take off in Season 2.

9 p.m. on HGTV Fixer to Fabulous: Welcome Inn

HGTV fan-favorite renovation experts Dave and Jenny Marrs take on a dream project of theirs, transforming an historic 1880s home into a functioning vacation rental, in this new four-episode series. It's a complete "gut job," presenting the couple with unprecedented construction challenges and high financial stakes, so they'll be recruiting fellow renovation experts for their help. In the premiere, the Marrses begin demolition, their first step toward creating a unique bed-and-breakfast holiday property. The discovery of a massive bee infestation soon gives them pause, however.

9 p.m. on A&E Storage Wars

In the new episode "In Pain in the Membrane," a friendly duel in Victorville proves challenging for Dusty Riach, but his mother lode of vinyl just might wind up saving him. Meanwhile, lvy Calvin's locker shines some light on the business, but Lisa DeLarios comes to realize she needs her own locker about as much as a hole in the head. Another new episode immediately follows.

What's Available NOW On prime video

"Movie: The Peanut Butter Falcon"

This feel-good indie dramedy from cowriters and directors Tyler Nilson and Michael Schwartz stars Zack Gottsagen as a young man with Down syndrome who escapes from an assisted living facility to pursue his dream of becoming a professional wrestler. He quickly forms a tight bond with Tyler (Shia LaBeouf), a wayward fisherman on the run. Dakota Johnson, John Hawkes, Bruce Dern and Jon Bernthal co-star.

"Movie: Dog Days"

Ken Marino directed this engaging 2020 romantic comedy featuring a large ensemble cast in a story that follows the intertwining lives of several canines and their Los Angeles owners. Among the principal characters are Mike (Michael Cassidy), a veterinarian; Dax (Adam Pally), a musician; Ruth and Greg (Jessica St. Clair, Thomas Lennon), Dax's pregnant sister and her husband; and Elizabeth (Nina Dobrev), a morning TV host.

"Movie: Overdrive"

At the behest of a crime boss, car thief brothers (Scott Eastwood, Freddie Thorp) have a week to pull off the heist of a vehicle — or else — in this 2017 action adventure from director Antonio Negret ("Seconds Apart," "Transit"). Ana de Armas, Gaia Weiss and Simon Abkarian also star.

"Movie: Chronicle"

Superpowers aren't necessarily a benefit if you don't know how to use them properly, as the comrades at the heart of this 2012 sci-fi tale learn quickly. Dane DeHaan, Alex Russell and Michael B. Jordan play the central trio, which largely uses the "Blair Witch Project"-"Cloverfield" approach of amateur videotaping to show the events as they unfold. The result effectively depicts ordinary people in extraordinary circumstances.

Thanks in part to the declassification of more and more previously restricted documents, a growing number of people are prepared nowadays to believe that at least some unidentified flying objects are of alien origin. But if one accepts the premise that extraterrestrials have come to Earth from light years away, is it really a stretch to consider these visitors may be capable of bending both time and space? The new episode "The Time Benders" examines the possibility these extraterrestrials may come from our own future.
