More nominees than usual mark music's 64th Annual Grammy Awards

Whatever is happening in it, the world always will have music ... and, as the Grammy Awards continue to confirm annually, new music.

That's even more the case as far as the Recording Academy's honors go, since several major categories expand by two to encompass 10 nominees each when CBS and Paramount+ present The 64th Annual Grammy Awards from Las Vegas' MGM Grand Garden Arena on Sunday, April 3. (The event was postponed from January.) "The Late Show With Stephen Colbert" bandleader Jon Batiste leads the nominees with 11 bids.

Despite some strife within and challenging of the Recording Academy in recent years, the Grammys – which Trevor Noah of "The Daily Show" will host for the second consecutive time – remain the high bar of music awards, with industry professionals casting the votes. Other artists with significant numbers of nominations this time include Justin Bieber, Doja Cat and H.E.R. with eight each.

Following are the contenders in the four Grammy categories that now have 10 nominees each.

Record of the year: "I Still Have Faith in You," ABBA; "Freedom," Jon Batiste; "I Get a Kick Out of You," Tony Bennett & Lady Gaga; "Peaches," Justin Bieber featuring Daniel Caesar & Giveon; "Right on Time," Brandi Carlile; "Kiss Me More," Doja Cat

featuring SZA; "Happier Than Ever," Billie Eilish; "Montero (Call Me By Your Name)," Lil Nas X; "drivers license," Olivia Rodrigo; "Leave the Door Open," Silk Sonic

Album of the year: "We Are," Jon Batiste; "Love for Sale," Tony Bennett & Lady Gaga; "Justice (Triple Chucks Deluxe)," Justin Bieber; "Planet Her (Deluxe)," Doja Cat; "Happier Than Ever," Billie Eilish; "Back of My Mind," H.E.R.; "Montero," Lil Nas X; "Sour," Olivia Rodrigo; "Evermore," Taylor Swift; "Donda," Kanye West

Song of the year (awarded to the songwriter or songwriters): "Bad Habits," performed by Ed Sheeran; "A Beautiful Noise," Alicia Keys and Brandi Carlile; "drivers license," Olivia Rodrigo; "Fight for You," H.E.R.; "Happier Than Ever," Billie Eilish; "Kiss Me More," Doja Cat featuring SZA; "Leave the Door Open," Silk Sonic; "Montero (Call Me By Your Name)," Lil Nas X; "Peaches," Justin Bieber featuring Daniel Caesar & Giveon; "Right on Time," Brandi Carlile

Best new artist: Arooj Aftab; Jimmie Allen; Baby Keem; FINNEAS; Glass Animals; Japanese Breakfast; The Kid Laroi; Arlo Parks; Olivia Rodrigo; Saweetie

Also among Grammy nominees in another category are the following.

Best pop vocal album: "Justice (Triple Chucks Deluxe)," Justin Bieber; "Planet Her (Deluxe)," Doja Cat; "Happier Than Ever," Billie Eilish; "Positions," Ariana Grande; "Sour," Olivia Rodrigo

"The Hunchback of Notre Dame"

"An American in Paris"

"Silk Stockings"

BEST PARIS MOVIES

"The Hunchback of Notre Dame" (1939) Charles Laughton makes an outstanding Quasimodo in this hugely atmospheric version of the Victor Hugo novel, which has been filmed numerous times. This edition is one of the attractions in a "Weekend in Paris" that Turner Classic Movies will stage Saturday, April 9, and Sunday, April 10.

"An American in Paris" (1951) Some of the most stunning dance sequences ever put on screen are included in this genre masterpiece, thanks to star Gene Kelly and director Vincente Minnelli.

"Funny Face" (1957) A fashion photographer's (Fred Astaire) search for the ideal model eventually takes him and his choice, a shop clerk (Audrey Hepburn), to – you guessed it – Paris.

"Silk Stockings" (1957) The musical variation of "Ninotchka" casts Cyd Charisse as the beguiling operative who potentially interferes with a producer's (Fred Astaire) plans for a movie to be made in Paris.

"Gigi" (1958) Life and love among several generations of the French gets a delightful portrayal in this Lerner and Loewe musical, which benefits greatly from the knowing presence of veteran talent Maurice Chevalier.

"The 400 Blows" (1959) Director Francois Truffaut's influential drama begins the saga of troubled youth Antoine, played in this and four subsequent films by Jean-Pierre Leaud.

"Breathless" (1960) Jean-Luc Godard's seminal drama (with writers including Francois Truffaut) presents Jean-Paul Belmondo as a thief turned killer on the run.

"The Devil Wears Prada" (2006) Though the bulk of it is set in New York, this comedy makes fine use of Paris in a late section of the film that takes an imperious magazine editor and her assistant (Meryl Streep, Anne Hathaway) there for a major fashion show.

Movie: Fallen Angels Murder Club: Friends to Die For 7 p.m. on (LIFE18); 11:01 p.m. on (LIFE18)
Adapted from a book series by novelist R. Franklin James, this new mystery movie franchise stars Toni Braxton as Hollis Morgan, who meets both requirements for membership in the Fallen Angeles Murder Club: a passion for books and a criminal record. Hollis did time after her ex-husband left her holding the bag for an insurance fraud scheme he concocted. Now, she's once again in the hot seat after another book club member is murdered in a manner right out of the novel the group has been sharing. Eddie Cibrian also stars. Movie: Hang 'Em High 7 p.m. on (SUND)

After starring in a run of spaghetti Westerns, Clint Eastwood came home and made this pasta-free tale of frontier justice. He plays a former lawman who's almost killed by a lynch mob for a crime he didn't commit. Encouraged by a judge and armed with a marshal's badge, he sets out to even the score with his would-be executioners. Inger Stevens, Ed Begley and Pat Hingle also star in the 1968 Western. Movie: Just One Kiss 7 p.m. on (HALL)

Two of Broadway's brightest stars, Krysta Rodriguez ("Smash") and Santino Fontana ("The Marvelous Mrs. Maisel"), share the spotlight in this new 2022 romance, which casts them respectively as Mia, a college literature professor, and Tony, who performs at a Manhattan supper club. Over the course of what seems like several chance encounters, romantic sparks start to fly between the pair. What they don't know is that their mothers (Ileana Douglas, Aida Turturro) are working a little matchmaking magic of their own. Movie: The Heat 8:15 p.m. on (FREE17)

Sandra Bullock and Melissa McCarthy merge their comedic styles as seemingly mismatched law enforcers in this 2013 action comedy that reteams McCarthy with her "Bridesmaids" director, Paul Feig. The action isn't shortchanged as Bullock plays an uptight FBI agent teamed with an earthy Boston cop (McCarthy) to find a violent drug kingpin.

Co-stars include Demian Bichir ("The Bridge"), Marlon Wayans and Jane Curtin. Impractical Jokers 10 p.m. on (TNT27)
Former cast member Joe Gatto may have left the building, but Brian "Q" Quinn, James "Murr" Murray and Sal Vulcano are getting back together for a high-profile reunion that's also being simulcast on sister channels TBS and TNT. Eric André ("Bad Trip") joins the trio for a half-hour of horseplay that airs as a new season of "Impractical Jokers" is currently in production for an anticipated return in Summer 2022.

Hey, if it ain't broke, don't fix it. For their follow-up to their 1959 smash "Pillow Talk," Rock Hudson and Doris Day star in this 1961 story about a guy who's trying to seduce a woman who hates him by pretending to be someone else. This time around, they're rival ad agency executives, and she's trying

Transplant
9 p.m. on (WJFW12)
As the days pass, Bash (Hamza Haq) becomes painfully aware that Rania's (guest star Nora Guersch) unsettling arrival has triggered some memories he had been just as happy to repress in the new episode "Contact." Hot spot workers cater to the rich and famous in ‘Serving the Hamptons’

The Hamptons on the eastern end of New York’s Long Island is one of the swankest resort areas on the East Coast and a playground for the rich, famous and powerful. And at its epicenter is a hot spot that is the subject of an unscripted series upcoming on discovery+.

“Serving the Hamptons,” a five-episode hourlong series that begins streaming Thursday, April 7, follows the employees of the popular Southhampton eatery 75 Main, whose owner Zach Erdem demands the highest level of service for his clientele of billionaires, politicians and celebrities.

That means getting the best help, and to attract it Erdem provides accommodations at a posh beach house. But in return, they must follow his rules, the biggest being no hooking up. Given that his workers are young, attractive singles, that can be a tall order. But Erdem has his reasons.

“This always happens,” he explains. “They go out, they drink and they’re like, ‘OK, I was trying to hook up with this girl but ... .’ And a fight broke out or something happened and the next day it will affect my work. ...”

“I look for mostly single employees,” he continues. “It’s better for me because if you hire married couples, even if the couple is divorced, like your chef gets upset because the (waitress) made a mistake and then the chef would scream at her. And the husband comes and (confronts) the chef and tries to beat him up. ... This cannot happen.”

Erdem’s story is a page right out of the American dream. He grew up herding animals in the mountains of Turkey and came to this country with little money after seeing a photo of New York City in a newspaper.

He eventually found his way to Southhampton and 75 Main, where he began as a dishwasher and impressed his bosses with his work ethic and people skills. After working his way up through the ranks, leaving the restaurant and coming back, he purchased it in 2010.

Summer is high season in the Hamptons and 75 Main is packed daily. So Erdem, a self-admitted micromanager, demands his 250-plus employees be on their game and do things the right way – his way.

“My staff sometimes gets mad at me,” he says, “and they’re just, ‘You know what? F... Zach. I can’t do this. The guy’s crazy. He wants this, he wants that.’”

“Yeah, of course I want that,” he continues. “You want to make money? This is how you make money. You want to give the good service? This is how you do it. You learn. I never tried to be mean to anybody or make someone upset. All I want is the best quality staff service for my customers.”

“The First Lady”
(Showtime — series premiere, April 17)

This new history anthology drama reframes American history through the lens of the extraordinary women at the heart of the White House. Much of the headline news may come from the West Wing of that building, yet some of history’s most world-changing decisions took place hidden from public view in the East Wing, the domain of the first ladies. Among the formidable actresses spotlighted in the series are Oscar, Emmy and Tony Award winner Viola Davis as Michelle Obama, Michelle Pfeiffer as Betty Ford and Gillian Anderson as Eleanor Roosevelt.

“Movie: Judy”

The casting of Renée Zellweger in the lead of a Judy Garland biopic initially raised some Hollywood eyebrows, but her performance in this 2019 adaptation of a hit play silenced skeptics, as she netted a slew of best actress trophies, including an Oscar. Jessie Buckley, Finn Wittrock, Rufus Sewell and Michael Gambon also star in the film, which chronicles the last year of Garland’s life.

“Movie: Moby Doc”

From director Rob Bralver (“Cure for Pain: The Mark Sandman Story,” “Espionage Tonight”) comes this documentary that chronicles the life and career of electronic music pioneer Moby, the musician, songwriter, singer and producer considered to be one of the most important figures in dance music of the early 1990s. (ORIGINAL)

“The Last Kingdom”

The ninth century-set British action series based on Bernard Cornwell’s “The Saxon Stories” finally returns for its fifth and final season after production was delayed a year by the pandemic. Disappointed fans should take note, however, that a follow-up movie is planned for some point in the future. Alexander Dreymon, Emily Cox and David Dawson are among cast returnees. (ORIGINAL)

“Mickey Mouse Funhouse” (Available now)

Mickey, Minnie, Donald, Daisy, Goofy and the rest of the gang are on the road to adventure in this series of animated shorts that originally aired on Disney Junior, which follows Funny, an enchanted talking playhouse who leads the group on imaginative journeys.

tonight's PICKS

Benjamin Franklin
7 p.m. on (WHRM2); 10 p.m. on (WHRM2); 1 a.m. on (WHRM2)
This two-part, four-hour documentary from Ken Burns, which concludes Tuesday, explores the life and work of one of the most consequential figures in U.S. history. While some have celebrated Benjamin Franklin's life as quintessentially American, the man himself was anything but typical, and he led many of the 18th century's most revolutionary changes in science, technology and government. The premiere, "Join or Die (1706-1774)," reviews Franklin's early success and explores how he sought to keep England and America together even as politics was tearing his family apart.

Movie: Captain Blood
7 p.m. on (TCM45)
This 1935 adventure showcases Errol Flynn at his swashbuckling best. The plot may remind of "Gladiator" — successful guy-turned-slave becomes a world-class butt kicker. In this case, he's a doctor who's sold into slavery, escapes and resurfaces as a pirate. And with the lovely Olivia de Havilland as his leading lady, how can you go wrong? The studio powers-that-be agreed, as they cast the pair in seven more movies together. This classic airs as part of a marathon honoring Flynn as TCM's Star of the Month.

Secrets of Playboy
8 p.m. on (A&E28); 12:03 a.m. on (A&E28)
Sondra Theodore, Susie Krabacher, Lisa Loving Barrett and Audrey Huskey are among the former Playmates, girlfriends and employees who gather to share stories about the experiences and struggles during their time in the Playboy world in the season finale "The Aftermath."

The Good Doctor
9:01 p.m. on (WAOW9)
Shaun (Freddie Highmore) works with Drs. Lim and Wolke (Christina Chang, Noah Galvin) to help a teenage bio-hacker whose self-experiments are starting to compromise his health in the new episode "Growing Pains." Elsewhere, Morgan (Fiona Gubelmann) hopes to take her personal relationship with Alex (Will Yun Lee) to the next level, as they team up with Dr. Glassman and Jordan (Richard Schiff, Bria Henderson) to treat a young woman who wants to undergo a controversial surgery to alleviate her depression and chronic pain.

Mud, Sweat & Beards
10 p.m. on (USA16); 12:58 a.m. on (USA16)
Wilderness experts and real-life BFFs Donny Dust and Ray Livingston take on Mother Nature in this new four-part adventure series, which finds the pair traveling to some of the most remote locations on Earth to do what they love best: building primitive paradises. Dust and Livingston spend 10 days in each location, where they undertake such tasks as building elaborate shelters and tracking down natural food sources, while enduring extreme weather, hunger and predators.

tonight's PICKS

Movie: Angels in the Outfield
7 p.m. on (TCM45)
Remade in 1994 with Danny Glover and young Joseph Gordon-Levitt, this charming 1951 comedy-fantasy stars Paul Douglas (“A Letter to Three Wives”) as the manager of a losing baseball team that gets a boost from some heavenly helpers — angels who were once great ballplayers on Earth. There’s a catch, though: He has to quit cussing and bullying his players. Janet Leigh and Donna Corcoran also star in the film, which kicks off “Play Ball — Night 1,” a baseball-themed programming event.

Movie: Nightmare Neighborhood Moms
7 p.m. on (LMN); 11:01 p.m. on (LMN)
New homeowner Charlotte has barely moved in when she meets Bonnie, a neighbor who strikes her as highly competitive. After Charlotte discovers another woman who lived in their neighborhood recently was murdered, her daughter Jordan suggests they form a neighborhood watch, including Bonnie. Unfortunately, they don’t know Bonnie killed that recent victim, who was having an affair with Bonnie’s husband. And now — uh oh! — Bonnie suspects her hubby is a little too interested in Charlotte. Gina Simms, April Hale and Summer Madison star in this 2022 thriller.

Charmed
7 p.m. on (CW)
Series star Rupert Evans, who plays Harry, directed the new episode “The Sisterhood of the Traveling Sandwich,” in which a conspiracy-theorist hobgoblin threatens the lives of everyone at the Blue Camellia. When Maggie and Kaela (Sarah Jeffery, Lucy Barrett) step in to save the day, however, they wind up getting stuck in the past. Meanwhile, Mel (Melonie Diaz) still struggles to regain control of her powers.

The UnXplained
8 p.m. on (HIST43); 11:03 p.m. on (HIST43)
A new episode called “What Lies Below?” looks at the real “final frontier” of our planet: the underwater world of Earth’s oceans, 80 percent of which remains unexplored. Now, however, breakthroughs in new technology allow researchers to explore the world’s seas and deep lakes more thoroughly than ever before. This hour considers the extraordinary wonders that could await scientists deep below the surface. William Shatner is the host.

A Black Lady Sketch Show
10 p.m. on (HBO); 11:30 p.m. on (HBO)
Series stars Robin Thede, Gabrielle Dennis, Ashley Nicole Black and Skye Townsend are back as this Emmy-winning sketch comedy show — which takes a comical look at life in a magical reality that subverts traditional expectations — returns for Season 3.
